

Situation 1: Your best friend asks you to help him cheat on a math test. You want him to keep being your best friend. You could offer to tutor him, but that won't help him on this test. What do you do?

Situation 2: You saved your allowance money and did extra chores for weeks so you could buy that special toy. Your family is going to stop at the toy store right after church. Your Sunday school teacher announces that your class is taking a collection for a family who lost everything in a fire. You feel the wad of money in your pocket. What do you do?

Situation 3: Your teacher is sick. You have a substitute teacher. Everyone is acting badly and trying to get away with everything they can. You want to fit in. What should you do?

Situation 4: Everyone is picking on an unpopular kid in the class. If you are nice to this person, you might be picked on too. How can you show God's goodness to the unpopular kid and to your friends?

Situation 5: You are invited to go to someone's house to watch a video with a lot of violence in it. You really want to see it. However, you know that your parents would be very upset with you if you watched the movie. Why is watching the movie not a good thing to do? Can you think of another thing you and your friend could do together that would be fun for both of you and reflect God's goodness?

Situation 6: You've been busy all day and haven't had a chance to read your Bible or pray. You get a call from your friends. They want to go see a movie and invite you to come along. You know that goodness grows when we spend time with our good God. Think of three different ways you can handle this. Pick the best option.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Situation 7: Your parents are tired, and they're taking a nap on the couch. They've asked you to be quiet while they sleep. Name five ways you can demonstrate God's goodness to them while they sleep. You may ask other kids to help you think of ideas.

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

Situation 8: It's time for you and your sister to draw chores from the chore jar for the week. You are really lucky. You drew all the good chores while your sister drew all the nasty chores! Do you have opportunities to demonstrate God's goodness in this situation?